DEAN'S BIT - 'The Lord is Risen as he said!' This cry rings out in the church today as it has in Christian communities for two thousand years, echoing the joy of the first disciples who saw the Risen Lord.

Fr Conor, Fr CJ, Fr Garner and I wish you a joyful Easter. We pray that the Lord who is present in the midst of his church will bless you and yours.

The appearance of the Risen Lord to the disciples did not suddenly make believers out of them. They struggled, did not comprehend, did not believe, but the Risen Lord, was patient with his friends and led them to Easter faith. They had failed him, but he did not fail them. They came to believe that he is the Lord, as they listened to him speak to him about the fulfilment of the Father's plan, as they connected their experience of him with his ministry and the promises of the prophets. This journey was one they made with their brother and sister disciples, not one they made alone. Wherever we are on the journey of faith, it is in the community of disciples that we grow toward and in Easter faith. Here we are gathered together to listen to the Risen Lord, to be invited, challenged and fed by him who lives for ever.

If you are a regular participant in the Mass here or in another place, may this Easter confirm and console you. If you participate irregularly or have just popped in this time, I would invite you to take a next step. The Lord does not reveal the whole journey ahead of us, but just invites us to take the next step trusting in him. As Pope Francis said in an Easter homily: 'Let us go, then. Let us allow ourselves to be surprised by this new dawn and by the newness that Christ alone can give. May we allow his tenderness and his love to guide our steps. May we allow the beating of his heart to quicken our faintness of heart.'

May you carry the joy of Easter in your heart and share it with everyone you meet these days. The Lord is risen indeed! Alleluia!

AUSTRALIAN CATHOLIC YOUTH FESTIVAL 2019 PERTH - More than 5000 young Catholics are expected to converge on Perth later this year for the Australian Catholic Youth Festival (ACYF). As the largest Catholic gathering in Australia, the ACYF promotes and engages the life and voice of young Catholics, equipping them to live out their faith in the world. To be held in the Perth 8-10 December.
