MISSIONARY MONTH OF OCTOBER - Pope Francis has launched the Extraordinary Missionary Month of October. The Holy Father recalled the witness of three people: St Thérèse of Lisieux, a religious woman, St Francis Xavier, a priest, and the Ven. Pauline Jaricot, a laywoman. “God has entrusted us with his greatest treasures: our own lives and the lives of others. He has entrusted any number of different gifts to each of us. These gifts, these talents, are not something to be stored in a safe; they are a true vocation: the Lord calls us to make our talents bear fruit, with boldness and creativity. God will ask us if we stepped forward and took risks, even losing face. This extraordinary Missionary Month should jolt us and motivate us to be active in doing good. Not notaries of faith and guardians of grace, but missionaries. “We become missionaries by living as witnesses: bearing witness by our lives that we have come to know Jesus. It is our lives that speak”. “We sin by omission, that is, against mission, whenever, rather than spreading joy, we think of ourselves as victims, or think that no one loves us or understands us. We sin against mission when we yield to resignation: “I can’t do this: I’m not up to it”. How can that be? God has given you talents, yet you think yourself so poor that you cannot enrich a single person? We sin against mission when we complain and keep saying that everything is going from bad to worse, in the world and in the Church. We sin against mission when we become slaves to the fears that immobilize us, when we let ourselves be paralyzed by thinking that “things will never change”. We sin against mission when we live life as a burden and not as a gift, when we put ourselves and our concerns at the centre, and not our brothers and sisters who are waiting to be loved. “Yes, in this month the Lord is also calling you, because you, fathers and mothers of families; you, young people who dream great things; you, who work in a factory, a store, a bank or a restaurant; you who are unemployed; you are in a hospital bed... The Lord is asking you to be a gift wherever you are, and just as you are, with everyone around you. He is asking you not simply to go through life, but to give life; not to complain about life, but to share in the tears of all who suffer. Courage! The Lord expects great things from you. He is also expecting some of you to have the courage to set out and to go wherever dignity and hope are most lacking, where all too many people still live without the joy of the Gospel. “But must I go alone?” No, that is wrong. If we think about doing missionary work like business organisations, with a business plan, that is wrong. The Holy Spirit is the protagonist of our mission. Go with the Holy Spirit. The Lord will not leave you alone in bearing witness; you will discover that the Holy Spirit has gone before you and prepared the way for you. Courage, brothers and sisters! Courage, Mother Church! Rediscover your fruitfulness in the joy of mission!” NOVEMBER MASSES - There are books in which you are invited to write the names of your friends and loved ones who have died. The books will be on the sanctuary in November and all those in them will be remembered in our November Masses. The November envelopes are also available. ST. MARY’S CATHEDRAL YOUTH FUND RAISER - Sunday, 27th of October after the 11:00 Mass. Lunch on the Green in front of the Cathedral. Food and entertainment will be available (more details to come). CALLING FOR NEW ALTAR SERVERS – We have half-a-dozen eager volunteers already and calling more boys and girls in year 4 and older to join the Cathedral’s altar-serving team. Teenagers and young adults are welcome too. You will go on a roster to serve regularly at one of the weekend Masses. Parents please speak to your children. Serving at Mass allows young people to engage in the celebration in a new way and to grow in confidence. Training will be provided. As part of our safeguarding commitment, we ask parents to assist as well. At each Mass a mother of one the servers will be in the sacristy when the servers are preparing before Mass and when they are putting away their vestments after Mass. Young people who would like to serve are invited to put their name and age on the sheet at the back of the Cathedral together with a parent’s contact details if they are under 18 or email the details to the parish office. Any questions or comments please see Fr Sean. CULTURAL DIVERSITY MASS - We live in a very diverse cultural country and it is important that as a community of faith we open the door to understanding and acceptance of what that looks like in our worshipping community. You are invited to join Archbishop Timothy Costelloe SDB at a Eucharistic Celebration for Cultural Diversity Mass on Saturday 26th October at 6.00 pm in St Mary's Cathedral, Perth. You may wish to wear the National dress or the colours and clothing of your country of origin or culture. You are invited to bring a plate from your cultural heritage and enjoy a light supper in the Parish Centre following the mass.
