A HAPPY and BLESSED LUNAR NEW YEAR TO ALL OUR PARISHIONERS

NATIONAL ABORIGINAL AND TORRES STRAIT ISLANDER CATHOLIC COUNCIL The peak body representing First Nations Catholics has invited fellow Catholics to make 2022 a year of action to “strengthen Australia’s foundations by supporting Australia’s First Peoples”.

The National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Catholic Council has issued a statement for Australia Day, reflecting on this year’s theme: Reflect. Respect. Celebrate (tinyurl.com/zh2ttjyv) The statement unpacks those three verbs and encourages people to consider a response as individuals and as Catholics.

“By reflecting upon the theme on a personal level, we are assuming the responsibility for action and not leaving it to others to create change,” it reads.

“Combined with our innate desire, as Catholics, to become more like Christ, we are individually called to action to make Australia a country that more closely reflects our Christian beliefs of equality, respect and care for our poor and vulnerable.

“A nation built upon these beliefs is a strong and inclusive nation – something we all desire. However, a strong nation is built upon a strong foundation, and currently Australia’s foundations are undermined by its relationship with its First Peoples.”

To strengthen those foundations, NATSICC recommends the addition of a fourth verb to the Australia Day theme: Do.

“Words are easy and limitless, but actions require time, effort and commitment,” the statement says.

“We ask that you make 2022 the year of ‘Do’.”

NATSICC offers some practical suggestions for how parishes, schools, organisations and individuals can take up that challenge.

They include attending Mass at an Aboriginal and Islander Catholic Ministry, displaying acknowledgement plaques prominently in public places and supporting the Uluru Statement from the Heart.

CHILDREN’S LITURGY Respondents to the recent Cathedral Parish Council’s 2021 survey revealed an interest in the Cathedral holding regular Children’s’ Liturgies. A meeting of those interested will be held in the Parish Centre after the 9:30am mass on Sunday, 13 February. Any questions or expressions of interest can be sent to Fr Sean

CALLING YOUNG PEOPLE interested in offering their musical talents at the Sunday 5pm Mass. Some young people have made contact. Please think about how you can use your talents to praise God. Please speak to Fr Sean or send him an email dean.cathedral@perthcatholic.org.au
