DEAN'S BIT

'You are looking for Jesus of Nazareth. He is not here.' What wonderful words! The women – courageous, faithful, loving women – had gone to the tomb expecting to see the disfigured, cold body of Jesus, but he is not there in that place of darkness and death. He has transformed it through his resurrection and so he has transformed all our experiences of death – the ones we experience through life or the one which will come at the end of our life's journey. 'He is not here. He has risen as he said.' Easter joy expands our horizons. Jesus underwent a death like ours so that our death would become his death and our death become a sharing in his resurrection. Happy Easter! The Lord is risen! He is risen indeed! Alleluia!
