Modern slavery is a current reality which is hidden in plain sight in Australia. Place-based faith communities such as the Catholic parish are ideally situated to combat this evil at the local level. This presentation will explain what modern slavery is and how the Catholic parish unintentionally contributes to it. In keeping with Catholic social teaching and the Gospel call to 'love thy neighbour', four easy-to-implement Parish Actions will be examined along with resources, indicators of slavery and helps for victims. All are invited to join! Cost: $10.00 Presenter: Dcn Greg Lowe, Director of WA Catholic Migrant and Refugee Office. Further info or to register, email cfe@perthcatholic.org.au, or call 08 9278 0261
