DEAN'S BIT Do come along to the sausage sizzle next Sunday (see notice below).

The Archbishop has written a pastoral letter on the Fifth Plenary Council. You can read the letter at bit.ly/PlenaryCouncil22

In the letter the Archbishop writes about the next steps in the Plenary Council process: Both the lights and shadows of Catholic life in Australia were recognised by the Plenary Council. The decisions taken by the Council, which will be referred to Pope Francis for his reflection, guidance and, as appropriate, confirmation, will guide us as we now move forward. Here in the Archdiocese of Perth we will convene a Diocesan Synod to consider how best, in our particular context, to implement the decisions of the Council, once they have received the Pope's formal approval. While it may be some time before the Pope returns to us with his decisions and recommendations, we can already begin to reflect together on the provisional outcomes of the Plenary Council.

We wait to hear the Pope's response which we await, as the Archbishop writes, 'with the trust, respect and openness which should be a mark of every Catholic faith community'. The journey continues and the Archbishop is inviting us to continue to walk together as receive the fruits of the Council, seeking to hear what the Spirit is saying to the church in Perth.

SAUSAGE SIZZLE Next Sunday (7 August) the Cathedral Parish Council supported by the Knights of the Southern Cross is hosting a sausage sizzle after the 11am Mass. All parishioners are invited to come along to have a bite, a soft drink, a chance to meet other parishioners and a chinwag. Don't miss it.
