DEAN'S BIT William O'Malley SJ, a renowned church historian has written a concise history of the Second Vatican Council and lists the shifts which the Council brought about: from commands to invitations, from laws to ideals, from threats to persuasion, from coercion to conscience, from monologue to dialogue, from ruling to serving, from withdrawn to integrated, from vertical and top-down to horizontal, from exclusion to inclusion, from hostility to friendship, from static to changing, from passive acceptance to active engagement, from prescriptive to principled, from defined to open-ended, from behaviour-modification to conversion of heart, from the dictates of law to the dictates of conscience, from external conformity to the joyful pursuit of holiness.

It is quite a list. What sticks out for you? The final two struck me - from the dictates of law to the dictates of conscience, from external conformity to the joyful pursuit of holiness - because, I think, the Archbishop is inviting us to that sort of conversion as we think about the Sunday obligation.

FROM YOUR PPC The Parish Pastoral Council met on Thursday 18 August and discussed: the Sausage Sizzle and the possibility of future ones, the creation of a Parish Mission Statement, the sole use of Slavery-Free-Certified Products, the introduction of "Welcomers at all Masses," and the collaboration with the Knights of the Southern Cross. Next meeting is on 15 September.

ARCHBISHOP'S PASTORAL LETTER If you have not picked up a copy of the Archbishop's letter to the faithful of Perth you can still read it online at <https://smc.tiny.us/22Aug>. It is an important letter.

The Archbishop is reinstating the Sunday obligation from 4 September and inviting us, in light of health concerns, to a mature approach to our faith and a genuine concern for the common good of our society.

AFRICA FOOD CRISIS

Drought and conflict in the Horn of Africa have left over 18 million people facing severe hunger. Four consecutive failed rainy seasons have devastated the crops of millions across the region. We must act now and Make Hunger History. Your generous donation means our partners in countries like Ethiopia, Kenya, Somalia, South Sudan and Eritrea can respond quickly to support vulnerable communities during this crisis.

Pope Francis

"The Risen Lord, while waiting for the Apostles by the lake, roasts some fish and then offers it to them. This gesture of caring love gives us a glimpse of what awaits us as we cross to the other shore. Dear brothers and sisters, the best of life is yet to come."
