DEAN BIT'S On Wednesday I had the opportunity to watch young people from Mercedes put on a musical version of Animal Farm. It was splendidly done and testament to the giftedness of the young, the wonderful work of their teachers and the opportunity they have to exhibit their talents and grow in confidence. Congratulations to Mercedes. Would that all young people had such opportunities. As we celebrate Migrant and Refugee Sunday we pray and advocate for the many children who go without.

We are now in a new Carolean age. The first such age did not end so happily for first Charles who lost his head in 1649. Such violent ends for monarchs happily belong to a bygone age (we hope!) and constitutional change happens more peaceably in the west, but still it is no bad thing to pray for our rulers and governments.

THE CATHOLIC ALLIANCE FOR PEOPLE SEEKING ASYLUM (CAPSA)'S NATIONAL WEEK OF PRAYER AND ACTION

We can build a better future right now, together, wherever we might be. Each year, CAPSA holds a National Week of Prayer and Action (NWPA) to engage the Australian Catholic community across schools, organisations and parishes, to take-action and stand in solidarity with people seeking asylum.

This year CAPSA's National Week of Prayer and Action will focus on actions we can take now, that will help build the future we want: an Australia that welcomes people seeking asylum and treats them with humanity and compassion. NWPA will run from Sunday 25 September (World Migrant and Refugee Sunday) to Friday 30 September.

There will be two key areas of focus for the week that concentrate on how we can build a better future right now, together, wherever we might be. These include:

- supporting refugees in our own communities, and
- taking practical steps to advocate for issues affecting the lives and futures of refugees and people seeking asylum.

The week will be themed around 'prayer and reflection' or 'action and advocacy' – so there's something for everyone! Further details on this year's National Week of Prayer and Action can be found online at: www.capsa.org.au/nwpa_2022

CATHOLIC YOUTH MINISTRY PERTH Youth Leadership Pathway, CYM Young Adults Program, October 2022

The Youth Leadership Pathway is a program developed for young adults aged 18-30, helping young Catholics to discover their unique skills and talents and develop their vocations as future leaders within the Church. It includes online modules and in-person workshops, with support from mentors and small groups. YLP integrates everyday lifestyle, and provides training and formation for young adults, to discover their spiritual gifts and place with the Church today.

Expressions of interest for YLP are now being taken by Catholic Youth Ministry for young adults who are keen to participate. More information can be found by visiting the CYM website cym.com.au or the YLP website ylp.net.au
