DEAN'S BIT

Fr Richard Rutkauskas is on his holidays at present, but when he returns it will not be to the Cathedral alas. Fr Richard will be looking after the Claremont parish for a few months before receiving another appointment. Fr Richard has been at the Cathedral for over three years and we are all grateful for his ministry with us. Please do keep him in your prayers as he enjoys a well-earned break and then moves onto a new ministry. It is a sad fact of life here that the good priests come and go on while the deans remain!

The first assembly of the synod on synodality has concluded in Rome. The Archbishop, who has played a key role in the assembly, will be on his way back to Australia. This first assembly has been marked by a new way of proceeding - the way of spiritual conversation - and many of the participants have remarked on the change it made to the gatherings. You can read the synthesis report of the first assembly at <https://www.synod.va/en.html>
